

Songs for Owl Mini Unit

TUNE: Yankee Doodle

Ollie Owl sits in the barn (a tree) waiting for the moon.

When the moon comes out tonight,
he'll sing out hoot-y-who.

First he'll flap his wings a bit
as owls often do.

"Listen to my song," he says.

"It's sung from me to you."

Who! Who! Who!

TUNE: Over In The Meadow

Over in the treetop,
You can hear the mother owl
talking to her baby owl

"Now, open-up your bill"

"Who," said the mother owl

"Who if you will".

So they whoo'd and they whoo'd
at the moon on the hill.

TUNE: Yankee Doodle

Ollie Owl sings out, "Who, Who".

It's time to close my eyes.

Girls and boys, it's time to rise and go to class on time.

TUNE: Hickory, Dickory Dock

Hoot-y-who, hoot-y-who, who,
Ollie sings to the moon.

Who-who, who-who,
he sings to you.

Hoot-y-who, hoot-y-who, who!

TUNE: I'm A Little Teapot

Listen to the owl hoot-y-who.

Listen to the owl hoot-y-who.

Listen to the owl hoot-y-who.

God made owls hoot-y-who.

TUNE: Down At The Station

Out in the forest on a summer evening, see the pretty moon rising in the sky.

Hear the little owls flying in the night.

Who,who,who,who,they fly high.

TUNE: Mary Had a Little Lamb

Ollie Owl's a hooting owl, hooting owl, hooting owl.

Ollie Owl's a hooting owl.

I hear him hooting now.

Who! Who! Who!
